

Highlights

STORYTELLING ADVENTURES

Things to Write

STARRING YOU!

Write a description of yourself as if you're the main character in a book.

STORY STARTER

Open a book. Use any sentence as your first line.

NAME GAME

Make a phrase using the letters of your first name. So, L-E-O could be Leopards Eat Oranges. Then use that phrase as inspiration for your story.

KITTY CHITCHAT

Pretend you can talk to a pet. Write down how you think a conversation with them would go.

CHANGE IT UP

Rewrite a fairy tale or well-known story into a mystery or science fiction story.

WHAT DO YOU SEE?

Write about whatever you see from where you're sitting right now.

TASTY POETRY

Write an acrostic poem about your favorite food.

For example:

Tortilla shell

Always delicious

Cheese on top

Order guac on the side!

Choose a character, then choose a path.

A chicken on a secret mission.

with a beautiful singing voice.

A robot

A bagel named Eugene.

A dragon

A pickup truck

who becomes a superhero.

who has a bad hair day.

Untangle a Tale

This story-starter maze gives you 25 different story ideas. Try a few, then make up your own story-starter maze!

Not in a writing mood? Draw a picture instead.